On a happy farm, there lived a happy farmer and his happy cow. The farmer was very kind so the cow made a lot of delicious milk. The farmer loved the cow very much so he gave the cow special food every day.

At Christmas, the farmer gave the cow a huge chocolate bar. A magical thing happened. The next day, when the farmer milked the cow, chocolate milk came out.

When the children learned about the cow, they came from all over the world to drink the delicious chocolate milk.

When it was the cows dinner time, the farmer could not find his favorite cow. He was worried.

First, he looked in the garden. He met a fat white duck and asked, "Have you seen my cow?"

The duck replied, "Yes, it went into the forest. Quack - Quack." So the farmer went into the forest to find his cow.

In the forest he met a rabbit. The farmer asked, "Have you seen my cow?"

The rabbit replied, "Yes, I saw him walking to the beach." So the farmer walked to the beach. When he got to the beach he saw seven cows eating chocolate cake and drinking chocolate milk. He was happy to see his favourite cow again.

He asked the cow, "Why did you run away?" I have been looking all over for you."

"I did not run away" replied the cow. "I just came to have a birthday party with my friends at the beach. Do you want to join us?"

The farmer joined the cow's party and they had a wonderful time.
